TO HEAR THE

BLACKSTONE COMMUNITY CHORUS

PERFORM SONGS OF SURVIVAL AND SONGS OF FREEDOM THAT WILL TAKE US W-A-A-Y, W-A-A-Y BACK TO TIMES OF SLAVERY--DRESSED AS SLAVES AND SINGING SONGS WHILE PICKING COTTON OR SHUCKING CORN.

The Blacks that stepped in chains from the slave ships were a musical people. They used songs to express religious ideas after a long, hard day at work. They risked the sometimes cruel anger of their masters to steal into the woods at night and improve their music for hours. Many of the songs were mournful. Others were filled with the Joy of Christ.

JOIN US AS WE JOURNEY BACK IN TIME WITH THE BLACKSTONE COMMUNITY CHORUS AND WITNESS HISTORY REPEAT ITSELF!

*May the Lord continually bless you with heaven's blessing as well as with human joys.
